

Worksheet: Transforming Active and Passive Voice (Formal & Interrogative Sentences)

Name: _____

Class: _____

Part 1: Formal Sentences (Passive to Active Voice)

Transform the following formal passive sentences into active voice:

- Smoking is prohibited in this area.
Active: _____
 - Entry is restricted to authorized personnel only.
Active: _____
 - The meeting will be conducted by the chairman.
Active: _____
 - Rules are enforced by the security staff.
Active: _____
 - No parking is allowed in front of the building.
Active: _____
 - The decision has been approved by the board.
Active: _____
 - The problem was discussed by the committee.
Active: _____
 - The documents must be submitted by the end of the week.
Active: _____
 - The invitation has been sent to all participants.
Active: _____
 - Instructions will be given by the supervisor.
Active: _____
-

Part 2: Active to Passive Voice (Formal Sentences)

Transform the following active sentences into passive voice, maintaining the formal tone.

- They strictly enforce the rules here.
Passive: _____
- The authorities have implemented new regulations.
Passive: _____
- The manager will review your application.
Passive: _____
- The company has made safety a priority.
Passive: _____
- They will conduct the workshop next Monday.
Passive: _____

6. The police are investigating the incident.
Passive: _____
 7. They had completed the report before the deadline.
Passive: _____
 8. The government introduced new policies last year.
Passive: _____
 9. The team is planning the annual conference.
Passive: _____
 10. The authorities will issue a statement soon.
Passive: _____
-

Part 3: Transforming Interrogative Sentences (Active to Passive)

Transform the following interrogative active sentences into passive voice.

1. Did they complete the project on time?
Passive: _____
 2. Are they organizing the event today?
Passive: _____
 3. Has the teacher explained the topic?
Passive: _____
 4. Did the police arrest the suspect?
Passive: _____
 5. Will they approve the proposal?
Passive: _____
-

Part 4: Transforming Interrogative Sentences (Passive to Active)

Transform the following interrogative passive sentences into active voice.

1. Has the homework been completed by the students?
Active: _____
 2. Was the invitation sent by him?
Active: _____
 3. Will the speech be delivered by the principal?
Active: _____
 4. Is the house being painted by the workers?
Active: _____
- Has the song been sung by the choir?
Active: _____
5. Is the trophy being awarded by the coach?
Active: _____

ANSWERS

Part 1: Formal Sentences (Passive to Active Voice)

1. Smoking is prohibited in this area.
Active: They prohibit smoking in this area.
 2. Entry is restricted to authorized personnel only.
Active: They restrict entry to authorized personnel only.
 3. The meeting will be conducted by the chairman.
Active: The chairman will conduct the meeting.
 4. Rules are enforced by the security staff.
Active: The security staff enforces the rules.
 5. No parking is allowed in front of the building.
Active: They do not allow parking in front of the building.
 6. The decision has been approved by the board.
Active: The board has approved the decision.
 7. The problem was discussed by the committee.
Active: The committee discussed the problem.
 8. The documents must be submitted by the end of the week.
Active: You must submit the documents by the end of the week.
 9. The invitation has been sent to all participants.
Active: They have sent the invitation to all participants.
 10. Instructions will be given by the supervisor.
Active: The supervisor will give instructions.
-

Part 2: Active to Passive Voice (Formal Sentences)

1. They strictly enforce the rules here.
Passive: The rules are strictly enforced here.
2. The authorities have implemented new regulations.
Passive: New regulations have been implemented by the authorities.
3. The manager will review your application.
Passive: Your application will be reviewed by the manager.
4. The company has made safety a priority.
Passive: Safety has been made a priority by the company.
5. They will conduct the workshop next Monday.
Passive: The workshop will be conducted next Monday.
6. The police are investigating the incident.
Passive: The incident is being investigated by the police.
7. They had completed the report before the deadline.
Passive: The report had been completed before the deadline.

8. The government introduced new policies last year.
Passive: New policies were introduced last year by the government.
 9. The team is planning the annual conference.
Passive: The annual conference is being planned by the team.
 10. The authorities will issue a statement soon.
Passive: A statement will be issued soon by the authorities.
-

Part 3: Transforming Interrogative Sentences (Active to Passive)

1. Did they complete the project on time?
Passive: Was the project completed on time?
 2. Are they organizing the event today?
Passive: Is the event being organized today?
 3. Has the teacher explained the topic?
Passive: Has the topic been explained by the teacher?
 4. Did the police arrest the suspect?
Passive: Was the suspect arrested by the police?
 5. Will they approve the proposal?
Passive: Will the proposal be approved by them?
-

Part 4: Transforming Interrogative Sentences (Passive to Active)

1. Has the homework been completed by the students?
Active: Have the students completed the homework?
2. Was the invitation sent by him?
Active: Did he send the invitation?
3. Will the speech be delivered by the principal?
Active: Will the principal deliver the speech?
4. Is the house being painted by the workers?
Active: Are the workers painting the house?
5. Has the song been sung by the choir?
Active: Has the choir sung the song?
6. Is the trophy being awarded by the coach?
Active: Is the coach awarding the trophy?